

WESTERLY

Mrs. Ralph Koels, of Westery, Misses Helen Koels and Florence Brown of Westery left Wednesday for Northfield. Next week Wednesday, Miss Violet Doherty and Edith Lathrop of Stonington will leave for camp to attend the convocation of one week. Wednesday 500 students were scheduled to arrive from all parts of the country. An excellent list of speakers has been arranged for the sessions. Stage coach service, tennis and jumps under guides are among the interesting part of the camp life.

At Camp Tanager, one adult leader is provided to every ten of seven boys. Howard Miller of Stonington college and son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Koels of Stonington is one of the leaders and Lawrence Brooks and James H. Silvers from Westery will also look after the boys from this section. A musical show was started on the 14th and local boys took part. The third week in July will come the new boys' outing when it is expected that about 50 boys will attend. From July 27 to Aug. 11, the girls will have a chance to attend, this being carried on by the New London County Sunday school association and any girl from the county is eligible.

The several troops of Boy Scouts from Westery will go to Camp Yagoo, this month and enjoy the life. This is situated on the lake and hundreds attend the camp from all parts of Rhode Island every year.

The meeting of the Pleasant View fire district will be held Tuesday evening at the Wigwam hotel. At this time the proposition of the construction of a cement sidewalk along Atlantic avenue will be taken up. This summer place involving one of the busiest beaches and the heavy traffic on the road makes it dangerous to pedestrians. Since the breakers of recent storms have washed bulkheads and walls away and people are urged to walk on which keep automobiles during the summer. A tax will also be voted at the coming meeting.

Captain Edward Wilcox, well known in Westery, has been appointed district superintendent in the coast guard service. His commission as district superintendent with the rank of ensign was received June 29. There were ten others who took the examination and Capt. Wilcox was chosen to fill the place.

He was born in Westery, Oct. 22, 1874 and entered the employ of the coast guard when he reached his 21st birthday and was surmised No. 7 and was at the Westery station. He was promoted later to Quonset station as assistant. During the war he was assigned to the New York division and assisted in the work of the harbor anchorage branch and helped in supervising ships bound for foreign ports. After returning to Westery, Feb. 19, 1915, he remained until July, when he was assigned as assistant to the office of the district superintendent which he held until his new appointment.

Mrs. Anna Keenan, who was struck by a passing automobile on High street, Four Valley Tuesday evening is resting comfortably.

Robert Whitton, a sailing expert from Cleveland, Ohio, and Charles F. Fisher, a planning engineer, will be in town today (Friday) and meet the members of the town council.

Thursday evening crowds gathered in Westery Park to listen to a fine rendition given by the Westery band. Every number on the program was well received and heartily applauded.

Miss Lucy Crowley, secretary of the Red Cross at Westery reports for the summer which has been in her charge and provides for employment for women, that there have been more calls for help than the bureau is able to fill. This is a distinct change from early in the season, for during the spring there were more people for positions than there were positions for them. This is no doubt due to the summer rush for the beach.

Dr. Katherine M. Delvey, who has been the guest of her brother on Wilcox court, returned to Cleveland, Ohio, Thursday.

Miss Louise Lakin will arrive from New York today (Friday) and open the Bay View cottage at Watch Hill for the season.

Rev. Samuel G. Babcock, bishop of Massachusetts was calling on friends here Thursday.

Edward Whalen, who has been confined to his home on Grove street by illness, is able to be out.

A Julian Crandall of Ashaway, was here Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Rhoda G. Hays, formerly of Westery, is visiting her cousin at Haverham. Capt. Donald Cottrill who has been the guest of his mother on Elm street, returned Thursday to Boston.

Joseph Jackson, machinist at the Cottrell shop is spending two weeks vacation in New York.

Mrs. Hannah M. Dunn, of Myrtle, who has been spending two weeks with Mrs. Andrew Tefft, returned home Thursday.

Arthur Hey of Lawrence, Mass., who has been visiting Mrs. Tefft, also returned home Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Dixon and daughter of New York, were callers in Westery Thursday while en route by auto to Cape Cod, where they will spend the summer.

W. A. Wilcox of the West Side has returned from New York.

Two large signs reading "This is Pawcatuck" have been erected by the selectmen of the town of Stonington. One sign is at Moss farm and one at the north end of Liberty street. This little town of about 5,000 inhabitants is not on the map and was generally thought to belong to the town of Westery, as people coming into Pawcatuck were given the impression by a sign displayed by private parties which read, "This is Westery." This misled people, but now the town will be designated by the sign just placed so that strangers entering Pawcatuck of coming from Pawcatuck will know just where they are. Pawcatuck has many flourishing enterprises and yet because no postoffice or railroad station is located there the place fails to be on the map. Westery just across the bridge, provides these two services, also the water supply.

The Watch Hill Improvement society met Wednesday. Mrs. Davis C. Anderson presided. The meeting was addressed by Samuel H. Davis of Westery, who told of the work of exterminating the mosquito, all being spread on the ponds. Trees had been presented the society by Mrs. Malcolm C. Anderson. The annual meeting of the society will be held in August. Those holding office now are: Mrs. Davis C. Anderson, president; Mrs. Samuel Bettie, vice president; Mrs. Henry Joy, treasurer; Mrs. E. P. York, secretary.

George Webster of Westery has gone to Barre, Vt.

Dr. Joseph Howard returned home to Courtland, N. Y. Thursday, after spending some time with his parents on Grove avenue.

M. B. Laucher of Scranton, Pa., has arrived in Westery for a week.

CHESTERFIELD

Mr. and Mrs. William Bousa, Emily and Eleanor Bousa, Lulu and Anna Powers of Hartford, spent the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Powers.

Benjamin Goldstein and Aaron, Beatrice Rosenthal and Bonnie Miller of New York, spent the holidays with relatives here.

Eugene Coffey was taken recently to a private hospital in New London for a surgical operation. He is improving slowly.

The dance given in Cohen's hall on Monday evening was greatly enjoyed. Hamney's orchestra furnished the music.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Tilset and brother, Arthur of Natick spent Tuesday with relatives here.

Aaron Kage and family from New York are here at their summer home.

Many a man commands respect by simply looking wise.

THE RECIPE

It's doing your job the best you can
And being just to your fellow man;
It's making money—but holding friends,
And staying true to your aims and ends;
It's figuring how and learning why,
And looking forward and thinking high,
And dreaming a little and doing much;
It's keeping always in closest touch
With what is finest in word and deed;
It's being thorough, yet making speed;
It's daring blithely the field of chance
While making labor a brave romance;
It's going onward despite defeat
And fighting staunchly, but keeping sweet;
It's being clean and it's playing fair;
It's laughing lightly at Dame Despair;
It's looking up at the stars above,
And drinking deeply of life and love;
It's struggling on with the will to win,
But taking loss with a cheerful grin;
It's sharing sorrow and work and mirth
And making better this good old earth;
It's serving, striving through strain and stress,
It's doing your Noblest—that's Success!
